MCAT Tutoring Testimonials

“My tutor was extremely knowledgeable and is able to explain topics effectively. He was able to tailor our sessions to my specific style, which helped a lot, and also was able to help me improve on test-taking strategies, and approaches that allowed me to make a big jump in my performance. Highly recommend Mac. He was willing to go the extra mile and clearly genuinely cared about my performance and my thoughts/emotions. Great tutor and even better guy.” Lukas G. (student), Princeton University

“Not only is her knowledge of the subject material outstanding, Weike was a great person to work with because she kept me grounded. I'm a pretty anxious person and Weike made sure that I was calm and always assured me that I was doing fine even when I didn't understand the subject material. She sent me supplemental material almost every week and kept track of everything. Everyone at Cambridge Coaching that I had contact with was extremely personable and really seemed like they cared about me and my progress.” Caity S. (student), UMass Amherst

“There's probably not enough space to write everything I'd like to write, but suffice it to say that Mark was extraordinary. Always reliable, always super hard working, always prepared-- and always at a level I've rarely seen in people taking the MCAT, let alone an MCAT tutor!” Michael H. (student), Harvard College

“Joe is a gem! Clearly such a good guy -- very earnest and genuinely interested in the success of his students...Again, Joe was so great. I would definitely recommend him specifically to other students. Very patient, organized, thorough, clearly knowledgeable about the material, very supportive/encouraging. Also, Cambridge Coaching management was very accessible and helpful throughout the way.” Ana R. (student), Williams College

“My tutor totally helped me visualize what I needed to do, set goals, and keep me on a schedule of preparing for the MCAT. I am someone who really needs specific short-term goals, and he really helped me check off things in the short term. He also did a fantastic job of explaining a different way of going about thinking about the questions on the exam. I felt that at the end of our time together I was no longer worried about the exam, and was instead excited about the challenge that the questions posed.” Jack K. (student), Tufts University

“Cambridge Coaching is the best tutoring service on the market. The amount of freedom, flexibility, convenience and competent scholarly tutors is unmatched.” Aziz K. (student), Connecticut
